about nuoc mami

I started Nuoc Mami in early 2023, right around the time I found out I was pregnant with my second daughter. What began as a fun creative outlet quickly turned into something so much more: a way to reconnect with my Vietnamese roots, share a little cultural pride, and bring a splash of joy to your day (and your notebooks, laptops, water bottles... you name it).

Through bold colors, playful puns, and a whole lot of love, Nuoc Mami has become my way of celebrating Vietnamese and Asian culture — one design at a time. From nostalgic food references to cheeky sayings your mom might side-eye, each product is made to spark joy and connection.

You'll find no shortage of color, whimsy, and heart here. If you're into stationery that makes you smile, stickers that make you feel seen, and designs that proudly rep your heritage (or your favorite noodle dish), you're in the right place!
